

Dawn Flory Bio/personal note

I have taught a variety of youth art classes at the Hayner Center as well as been an art instructor along with Carol Bellas for the past four years at the summer art day camp.

I have always loved art and have been doodling, drawing, painting and basically doing anything that expressed my creative side for as long as I can remember. Following high school I attended a two year art program at The School of Advertising Art where I graduated 2nd in my class. After working for a couple of years designing monuments and memorials, I took some time off from the full time work force to start a family, but always managed to partake in some freelance artwork. My favorite of which is painting children's murals. I hope to do this on more of a full time basis once my children are older.

I am married and my husband, Eric, and I have four wonderful children.

I love interacting with children and have held day care in my home for the past 13 years. For the past few years I have also taught preschool age classes at the YMCA Robinson Branch.
