

Brief Bio - Kathy Moore

Kathy A. Moore works from direct observation of the motif whether it is a still life, landscape or the figure. Her work has been selected into 18 national juried art competitions. Her 2008 solo exhibits were in the Manifest Gallery in Cincinnati, the Ann Miller Gallery at Wittenberg University in Springfield, and the Anna Bier Gallery in Greenville, all in Ohio. A 2009 solo exhibit held at Edison College in Piqua comprised of recent landscapes. A recent solo exhibit of her large drawings was held in the Burnell Triangle Gallery at Sinclair Community College in Dayton. An upcoming solo exhibit is scheduled for 2011 in The Pearlman Gallery at The Art Academy of Cincinnati. Kathy received a BFA with honors in painting with a minor in drawing from Wright State University in Dayton. She teaches art classes as an adjunct instructor at Edison Community College and Sinclair Community College Life-Long Learning Program.