Lottery - Registration Day:
The registration of children for the 2018 summer art day camps will be determined through a lottery-style registration to ensure the process is completely fair and equally accessible for every potential participant. Come to the Hayner Center Wednesday, May 9. You will be asked to fill out a lottery form (one per family. Sorry, friends cannot be drawn together) and be prepared to make payment if your registration is drawn. Plan to arrive in enough time to fill out the form and place it in the barrel. The drawing will begin promptly at 7:00 pm. Lottery forms will not be added to the barrel after the drawing has begun. Latecomers will not be admitted after the lottery begins. Registration with payment is required and secures your child’s place in camp. Checks should be made payable to the Troy-Hayner Cultural Center. Partial financial assistance is available. Application forms will be available May 9. After registration day, telephone, mail, walk-in and website reservations will be taken if spaces are still available.

Summer 2018 Class Schedule

Meet Our New Instructors

Rachael Redolfi has been passionate about the arts her entire life. She began needle felting in 2011. She found the forgiving but surprisingly durable nature of the medium fascinating, and she uses needle felting to create dolls, soft sculptures, and portraits of creatures both real and imaginary. She earned an Associate’s degree in Fine Arts from Sinclair Community College in 2012.

Connie Galey is an award winning photographer who also enjoys fine art crafting, especially creating these simple, yet elegant, wearable bracelets. She began making jewelry as a result of classes that she took at the Hayner Center several years ago. Connie appreciates the versatility and ease of use of alcohol ink as an artistic medium.

The Troy-Hayner Cultural Center is proudly supported by the citizens of the Troy City School District through a local tax levy and generous gifts to the Friends of Hayner.
