Fee: (includes instruction & all materials)

$100 Troy City School District Residents

$100 Friends of Hayner Members

$115 Out of District

(financial assistance is available)

Whether furry, feathered, or covered in scales, creatures of all sorts will serve as inspiration to our young artists during this summer's art camp. Campers will use a variety of mediums to create 2D and 3D projects based on an animal theme. Instructors: Carol Bellas and Dawn Flory

Class sizes are limited to ensure quality instruction time. A total of 96 students for all three weeks can be accommodated.

Lottery - Registration Day:

The registration of children for the 2019 summer art day camps will be determined through a lottery-style registration to ensure the process is completely fair and equally accessible for every potential participant. Come to the Hayner Center Wednesday, May 8. You will be asked to fill out a lottery form (one per family. Sorry, friends cannot be drawn together.) and be prepared to make payment if your registration is drawn. Plan to arrive in enough time to fill out the form and place it in the barrel. The drawing will begin promptly at 7:00 pm. Lottery forms will not be added to the barrel after the drawing has begun. Latecomers will not be admitted after the lottery begins. Registration with payment is required and secures your child's place in camp. Checks should be made payable to the Troy-Hayner Cultural Center. Partial financial assistance is available. Application forms will be available May 8. After registration day, telephone, mail, walk-in and website reservations will be taken if spaces are still available.
