ADVANCING IN OIL PAINTING - Shirley DeLaet

The more you paint, the better you get! There is always something to learn, and we continue learning in each class. Our skills develop each time we pick up a brush and the excitement continues each time we mix a beautiful color of paint! Half of the fun of oil painting is learning and the other half is seeing our results. The more we paint, the better we get. It is definitely a rewarding experience! So, come join us. We all become inspired as we paint and learn together.

DRAWING

ADVENTURES IN DRAWING- Debora Cook

Have you ever said, "I enjoy drawing, but I don't know how to start, or continue to improve my skills?" Then, this series of classes is for you! Each group of three classes will explore different media uses and concepts while teaching essential skills. The classes in March will use pencils and charcoal/chalk, through beginning drawing lessons emphasizing the Elements & Principles of Art. The April classes will focus on exploring color media like pastels, colored pencils, etc. The last group of classes in May, will experiment in the "less forgiving" media through drawing with inks, markers, and diving into the areas of mixed media. There will be three sessions of three classes, but you don't have to attend all of them. Although all the sessions are sequential in design to encourage confidence in skill building, please feel free to join in when your schedule allows. Creativity is an interesting pathway, with many discoveries along the way. All materials will be provided.

Age: 15 - Adult

Fee: $75 for 3-week class

FOUNDATIONS OF DRAWING THE HEAD: A BEGINNER

COLORED PENCIL WORKSHOP - John Middick

This session is perfect for artists who are new to drawing portraits or colored pencil. We will focus on the essential building blocks of drawing the head including proportions, structure, light and shadow, and simple color decisions. You will learn a clear, approachable process for starting a portrait with confidence, even if you have never drawn a face before. This workshop stands alone, and it also serves as the ideal warm-up and preparation for the more in-depth Saturday session.

FOUNDATIONS OF DRAWING THE HEAD:

INTERMEDIATE COLORED PENCIL WORKSHOP

John Middick

This second session takes everything a step further. We will spend more time developing realistic color, value transitions, and the nuanced rendering needed to bring a portrait to life. While the class is designed around intermediate skills, students who attended Friday's fundamentals workshop will be comfortable here. If you consider yourself an intermediate to advanced artist, you will fit right in. There will be plenty of opportunities to refine your technique, deepen your understanding of color, and gain insights throughout the day. All students will receive a workshop workbook with step-by-step guidance, tips, and follow-up instructions so you can confidently finish your portrait at home and use these skills in your future art pieces.

JEWELRY MAKING

BEGINNING JEWELRY DESIGN AND MAKING - Connie Galey

In this class we will discuss the various types of wire, components and tools needed to create a pendant or earrings. Students will begin by making a pendant and learn to manipulate wire around a large bead. Then learn techniques to add components to their piece. We will then attach your piece to a cord or chain to complete your pendant. Students will have the opportunity to create another piece of their choosing, such as wire wrapped bead earrings or pendant.

Artists are invited to spend the week celebrating all things inspired by the CIRCUS! Campers will work alongside art instructors, Miss Gabbie and Miss Laura, to create “show-stopping” masterpieces inspired by the magic, color, and excitement of the big top! Young artists will explore all aspects of circus creativity through painting, printmaking, sculpture, ceramics, and more—bringing to life acrobats, animals, clowns, carnival treats, and dazzling performers.

We are offering 4 creativity-filled sessions of Summer Art Day Camp over 2 weeks. Each session highlights the talents of different age groups with their respective camp times. Every camp runs Monday–Thursday. At the end of each Thursday session, families are invited to our mini-art show, where every artist’s circus-themed creations will take center stage!

The instructors are Gabbie Braun and Laura Cantrell.
