

Hello!

I hope you were able to spend some special time with your family over the holidays. For those who are just joining, a little information about myself. I have always loved art and have been doodling, drawing, painting and basically doing anything that expresses my creative side for as long as I can remember.

Following high school, I completed an art program at The School of Advertising Art, which was recently rebranded as The Modern College of Design. After working for a couple of years designing monuments and memorials, I took some time off to care for my growing family. During that time, I enjoyed doing some freelance artwork which included painting children's murals. My current favorite art medium is watercolor marker and I have enjoyed time this past year immersed in the pages of my sketchbook. I am blessed to be able to balance my work at The Hayner, while also teaching art to students at Troy Christian Elementary School and The Miami County Cooperative Learning Center.

My goal with the Home School Art Program is to help the students build a strong art foundation, teach basic art and design principles, as well as expose students to art history and famous artists and art styles. My lesson plans will cover a wide variety of mediums and techniques.

A place for your child can be reserved by register online or stopping by The Hayner anytime. Pre-payment is required.

IF YOU KNOW OF ANYONE WHO MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN TAKING HOME SCHOOL ART, I WOULD REALLY APPRECIATE IT IF YOU PASS ALONG THE INFORMATION FOR MY CLASSES OR HAVE THEM CONTACT THE HAYNER OR MYSELF DIRECTLY.

I hope your child will join us and I look forward to a great semester! Please feel free to call or text me with any questions at 937-216-4999.

Sincerely,
Dawn Babylon
