Master Works Remixed: An Art's Alive at the Hayner Exhibit

Master Works Remixed:
An Art's Alive at the Hayner Exhibit
October 10 – November 29, 2020

Guidelines

Artists should select one of the following Master Works to remix.

1. Las Meninas by Diego Velázquez (1656)
2. Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci (1503 – 1519)
3. American Gothic by Grant Wood (1930)
4. Portrait of Madame Récamier by Jacques-Louis David (1800)

The artist will then reinterpret their selected scene to reflect today's society, reflecting on the changes between society when the works were created and now. All mediums, 2-dimensional and 3-dimensional, will be accepted.

Eligibility

Any person, age 15 and over is eligible to submit artwork. All entries must be original and created after January 1, 2017. Artwork previously exhibited at the Troy-Hayner Cultural Center should not be submitted.

Exhibition and Opening Reception

Master Works Remixed: An Art's Alive at the Hayner exhibit will be open to the public from October 10 – November 29, 2020. Only works selected by the jurors will be exhibited. The opening reception for the exhibition and awards presentation will be held Saturday, October 10, at 2:00 pm. All participants are encouraged to attend the opening.

Jurors

Timothy Wells is an artist and educator whose work includes photography and installation art. He completed his MFA at Wayne State University in Detroit, MI and has been teaching in colleges and universities for 10 years. Wells is actively involved in working with cities to plan and schedule public art exhibitions, thus bringing artwork off gallery walls and into the community setting. Wells' work has been exhibited across the United States.

Julie McMiller, B.S., M.Ed recently retired after a 35-year career as a Visual Arts teacher for Troy City Schools. Julie has been a juror for numerous art exhibitions in Troy, Ohio. She is actively involved in community art initiatives. McMiller is a member of the Troy-Hayner Cultural Center's Exhibit Committee, Troy Main Street's Design Committee, and Troy Main Street's Sculptures on the Square Committee.
